The Master of Landscape Architecture program at Louisiana State University provides students with the opportunity to explore the role of nature, culture, and individuals in shaping the built environment through the activity of design. The Lower Mississippi Valley, a rich cultural and natural region, serves as a laboratory for examination of the processes of landscape evolution and design.

LSU is a Research University 1, placing it in the top 2 percent of the nation's colleges and universities. The MLA program belongs to the Southern Academic Common Market, offering students from five southern states resident tuition. Assistantships and other financial aid are available to qualified applicants.

Study tracks for students with degrees in design fields and for those seeking a first professional degree with bachelor's degrees from other fields accommodate a range of individual student interests.

For further information contact: Suzanne Turner, Graduate Coordinator
Graduate Studies in Landscape Architecture
School of Landscape Architecture
302 New Design Building
Louisiana State University
Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70803
New books from University Press of Florida

Pioneer of Tropical Landscape Architecture
William Lyman Phillips in Florida

Faith Reyher Jackson
“The first comprehensive study of Phillips, by someone who knew him. . . . A significant, in-depth, and highly entertaining biography of [the man who] was one of the first to develop landscaping with tropical and subtropical plants [and who ] . . . left us with one great masterpiece—the Fairchild Tropical Garden.”—R. Brinsley Burbidge, director, Fairchild Tropical Garden, Miami
170 b&w photographs, list of projects, notes, bibliography, index. Cloth, $34.95
Illustrations featured—top: Matheson Hammock State Park, South Miami; below, left: vine pergola with initial planting, Fairchild Tropical Garden, South Miami; right: Mountain Lake Colony, Lake Wales.

Florida Gardening by the Sea
Mary Jane McSwain
“A wealth of practical information on plants and gardening techniques, supplemented by valuable anecdotal references that only someone with tremendous personal experience could share. . . . I am a great fan of Mrs. McSwain . . . [and] this is a very special book.”—Tom Underwood, manager of horticulture services, Walt Disney World
35 color photographs, 7 line drawings, 3 tables, glossary, bibliography, index. Cloth, $24.95

Common Coastal Plants in Florida
A Guide to Planting and Maintenance
Edited by Michael R. Barnett and David W. Crewz
“If you are challenged by trying to garden on property facing salt or brackish water, here’s help.”—Southern Living
• “This is the homeowner’s complete tome to coastal (read that ‘salt-tolerant’) plants. . . . A great guide for home or office areas.”—Palm Beach Post
40 color photographs, 35 drawings, bibliography, glossary. Paper, $17.95

Of Related Interest
Palms of South Florida
George B. Stevenson
Paper, $19.95

Florida Landscape Plants: Native and Exotic
John V. Watkins and Thomas J. Sheehan
Paper, $15.95

Your Florida Garden
John V. Watkins and Herbert S. Wolfe
Paper, $14.95

Order through full-service booksellers or with VISA or M/C toll free:
1-800-226-3822

UNIVERSITY PRESS OF FLORIDA
Gainesville, Tallahassee, Tampa, Boca Raton, Pensacola, Orlando, Miami, Jacksonville
Applications are invited for this tenure track faculty, teaching and research position in the identification, selection and use of plants in the managed landscape. The successful candidate will teach courses in woody landscape plants, and an advanced course in their area of expertise. The development of an extramurally funded research program in ecology, genetics, physiology, or systematics of landscape plants, or related area, is essential. The initial responsibilities will be approximately 60% teaching and 40% research. It is expected that the individual will coordinate their teaching and research efforts with faculty in horticulture, landscape architecture, and other related programs such as turfgrass science and urban forestry. Excellent opportunities for collaboration include the Department of Horticulture's Center for Plant Environmental Stress Physiology, and Center for Community and Environmental Design. Advising undergraduate students in the landscape horticulture and public horticulture curricula, as well as MS and PhD students is expected. A PhD in horticulture, botany, ecology or a related field is required. Postdoctoral research experience and demonstrated expertise in woody landscape plants are desirable. Salary will be competitive and commensurate with training and experience. Applicant screening will begin September 1, 1997. Interested individuals should send a resume, statement of teaching philosophy and research interests and goals, copies of representative publications (up to five), and three letters of reference to:

Dr. Michael N. Dana
Search Committee Chairman
Department of Horticulture
Purdue University
1165 Horticulture Building
West Lafayette, IN 47907-1165
Phone: 765.494.5923
Fax: 765.494.0391
e-mail: dana@hort.purdue.edu.

The Department of Horticulture values ethnic and gender diversity. Therefore, women and minority candidates are encouraged to apply. Purdue University is an Equal Opportunity / Affirmative Action Employer.

An Assistant or Associate Professor position is available beginning in academic year 1998-99 for a person qualified to offer graduate-level studio instruction in landscape architectural design and, as an adjunct to that, coursework in 3-D computer modeling and animation, and, if appropriate, in combined advanced studio and computer modeling. This full-time position may be filled for a fixed initial term, normally of four years, with responsibilities for teaching, scholarship, and administration. Candidates should have demonstrated excellence in landscape architectural design as well as some teaching and professional practice experience. They should also have a proven record of scholarly productivity in the field of 3-D computer modeling or demonstrate an ability to do so in the future.

Applications are invited before 1 November 1997 on the application forms available from: Office of Faculty Planning, Harvard University Graduate School of Design, 48 Quincy Street, Cambridge, MA 02138, TEL: 617-495-5409, FAX: 617-495-5310. Applicants should also include non-returnable copies of their most relevant digital work and publications, if any, with their applications. Harvard University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer.

Restoration & Management Notes

Editor: Dr. William R. Jordan III
Published: 2 / yr.
ISSN: 0733-0707

... the first and major journal in field of restoration ecology. Restoration and management of prairies, forests, wetlands and other plant and animal communities. Edited at the University of Wisconsin Arboretum. Founded 1982.

Rates:

Individuals: $24 / yr.
(must prepay)
Institutions: $66 / yr.
Foreign postage: $8 / yr.
Airmail: $11 / yr.

We accept MasterCard and VISA. Canadian customers please remit 7% Goods and Services Tax.

Please write for a free back issue list:
Journal Division, University of Wisconsin Press, 114 North Murray Street, Madison, WI 53715 USA
Or call, 608-262-4952, FAX 608-265-5277
THE MUSES OF GWINV
Art and Nature in a Garden
Designed by Warren H. Manning, Charles A. Platt, & Ellen Biddle Shipman
ROBIN KARSON
Honor Award -ASLA 1996
"...readers who love landscape and garden history will feel themselves transported, as if by a tale of great adventure."
-Catherine Howett, Journal of New England Garden History

THE GARDENS OF ELLYN BIDDLE SHIPMAN
JUDITH TANKARD
"...a handsome book, valuable not only to historians and garden designers, but also to every garden maker."
-W. George Waters, Pacific Horticulture
"Ellen Shipman, one of the long-forgotten garden makers being brought to light by the Library of American Landscape History, comes across as a true artist."
-Anne Raver, New York Times

From a previously unpublished archive of correspondence, and historical photographs, the author presents a richly detailed and fascinating account of the estate's development. The battle of style between formal and informal design principles, that was central to Gwinn's creation, illustrates the larger picture of emerging style in American landscape design.

216 pages, 115 illus.
$39.95 hardcover

A superb biography of one of America's first and most successful women landscape architects. An introduction by Leslie Rose Close puts Shipman's work in the context of the period, and of other successful women in the profession. The afterword by John Miller describes the restoration of Stan Hywet in Akron, Ohio, which is now open to the public.

250 pages, 208 illus.
$39.95 hardcover

Published together for the first time, these bulletins provide an historical and horticultural legacy that will interest gardeners in all parts of the United States. Paula Dietz's fascinating introduction places Farrand's work in context and adds much previously unpublished information about her life and career.

144 pages, 58 illus.
$25 hardcover

SAGAPRESS, INC. 1 • 800 • 327 • 5680
The MIT Press

Now in Paperback

THE POWER OF PLACE
Urban Landscapes as Public History
Dolores Hayden
"...a well-timed, well-reasoned call for fusing history and the environment to create a more democratic and inclusive interpretation of the places in which most of us live and work."
— The New York Times Book Review
320 pp., 112 illus. $15 paper

Now in Paperback

LE DÉSERT DE RETZ
A Late Eighteenth-Century French Folly Garden • The Artful Landscape of Monsieur de Monville
Diana Ketcham
"Diana Ketcham's magnificently researched and beautifully accomplished text. It is a book of interest to anyone with a taste for fantasy, architectural metaphor, the poetry of vision, and the aesthetics of stone and leaf."
— Arthur C. Danto, Columbia University
144 pp. 100 illus. $17.50 paper

http://www.mitpress.mit.edu

GARRETT ECKBO
Modern Landscapes for Living
Marc Treib and Dorothee Imbert
One of the central figures in modern landscape architecture, Garrett Eckbo (b. 1910) has been a major influence throughout an active career spanning five decades. While most of the early American designers concentrated on the private garden and the corporate landscape, Eckbo's work demonstrated innovative design ideas in a social setting. This engagement with social improvement has stayed with Eckbo throughout his life. This elegant book includes more than 100 of Eckbo's designs.
$39.95 cloth, color & b/w illustrations

At bookstores or order 1-800-822-6657
University of California Press

ACCENTS AS WELL AS BROAD EFFECTS
Writings on Architecture, Landscape, and the Environment, 1876-1925
Mariana Griswold Van Rensselaer
Selected and Edited by David Gebhard
Mariana Griswold Van Rensselaer is highly regarded for her biography of the nineteenth-century architect Henry Hobson Richardson. Less well known are her writings on architecture, decorative art, gardening, and landscape design, works that provide a rare view of cities and rural environments in turn-of-the-century America. Gebhard brings Van Rensselaer's significant writings together for the first time.
"An eye-opening reintroduction."—Preservation
$45.00 cloth, illustrated
Landscape Research

Landscape Research is distinctive in combining original research papers with reflective critiques of landscape practice. Contributions to the journal appeal to a wide academic and professional readership, and reach an interdisciplinary and international audience. Whilst unified by a focus on the landscape, the coverage of Landscape Research is wide ranging. Topic areas include: environmental design • countryside management • ecology and environmental conservation • land surveying • human and physical geography • behavioural and cultural studies • archaeology and history.

1997 - Volume 22. 3 issues. ISSN 0142-6397.

Online and Increasing to 6 issues in 1997!

Journal of Environmental Planning and Management

The Journal of Environmental Planning and Management is both international and interdisciplinary in its scope and content. For readers, JEPM offers the very best papers on environmental research, policy evaluation and practice from around the world. For authors, JEPM offers a fast and constructive review process and accepted papers are normally published within 12 months of first submission. JEPM is the foremost outlet for readers, researchers and others seeking a truly international and interdisciplinary perspective.

To view the Journal of Environmental Planning and Management online, please connect to http://www.catchword.co.uk

1997 - Volume 40. 6 issues. ISSN 0964-0568. Online: ISSN 1360-0559.

Journal of Urban Design

Launched in 1996, the Journal of Urban Design is a scholarly international journal which provides a new forum, bringing together those contributing to this re-emerging discipline and enabling researchers, scholars, practitioners and students to explore its many dimensions. The journal publishes original articles in specialised areas such as townscape and urban aesthetics • urban structure and form • urban history, preservation and conservation • urban regeneration • environmental psychology and perception • local and regional identity • design control and guidance • city centre revitalisation • safer environments and cities • property development • housing and residential development • greening urban design • cultural change and urban form • women and the urban environment • practice and implementation.

1997 - Volume 2. 3 issues. ISSN 1357-4809.

Visit the Carfax Home Page at http://www.carfax.co.uk

Carfax Publishing Company, 875-81 Massachusetts Ave, Cambridge, MA 02139, USA
Toll-Free: 800 354 1420. Fax: (617) 354 6875. E-mail: sales@carfax.co.uk
Handbook of Landscape Architectural Construction

The Handbook of Landscape Architectural Construction is a must-have desk reference for every practicing landscape architect. This four volume series offers comprehensive coverage of the practical elements of executing a landscape design—processes, procedures and materials—written by experts specializing in construction.

Volume I: The Construction Process

This first volume is a practical review of the major steps of the construction process, from plans through legal concerns. It includes how-to’s for many necessary calculations, handy reference tables, sample contracts and much more.

Table of Contents

1. Preparation of Construction Plans
2. Landscape Grading Design
3. Lay-out and Dimensioning
4. Surveying and Measuring
5. Site Construction Details
6. Technical Aspects of Planting
7. Surface Water Drainage
8. Specifications
9. Construction Observation and Evaluation
10. Metric Practice
11. Design/Build
12. Legal Concerns for the Landscape Architect

Volume II: Site Works

Site Works gathers a wide range of construction-related information into one resource. It includes informative, practical descriptions of many of the common problems faced by designers, from vehicle traffic to the particulars of designing sports facilities.

Table of Contents

1. Vehicular Circulation
2. Design for the Handicapped
3. Site Utilities
4. Sports Facilities
5. Microcomputers and Landscape Architecture
6. Retaining Walls
7. Pedestrian and Bicycle Circulation
8. Channels and Ponds

To order your copies, call 1-800-787-2665, or use the order form on the reverse side.
Landscape Architecture Bookstore, 4401 Connecticut Ave NW, Washington, DC 20008
THE EVOLVING LANDSCAPE
Homer Aschmann's Geography
EDITED BY MARTIN J. PASQUALETTI
with a foreword by John B. Jackson
"For the first time, we have in one finely edited volume Homer Aschmann's exemplary work in cultural geography."—Yi-Fu Tuan, University of Wisconsin, Madison
464 pages, 45 illustrations, $49.95 cloth

HOMO GEOGRAPHICUS
A Framework for Action, Awareness, and Moral Concern
ROBERT DAVID SACK
"A major work of contemporary geographical scholarship. This will be a controversial book that will stimulate much-needed debate about geographical agency, spatiality, and postmodernist claims."
—John Agnew, Syracuse University
328 pages, 105 diagrams, $19.95 paper

Creating the North American Landscape
Gregory Conniff, Bonnie Loyd, Edward K. Muller, and David Schuyler, Consulting Editors

MAGNETIC LOS ANGELES
Planning the Twentieth-Century Metropolis
GREG HISE
The twentieth-century metropolitan expanse, Hise argues, is the product of conscious planning—by policymakers, industrialists, design professionals, community-builders, and homebuyers—in direct response to political and economic conditions.
256 pages, 59 illustrations, $35.95 cloth

EVERYDAY ARCHITECTURE OF THE MID-ATLANTIC
Looking at Buildings and Landscapes
GABRIELLE M. LANIER AND BERNARD L. HERMAN
This pioneering field guide to the region's historic vernacular architecture describes the remarkably diverse building traditions that have overlapped and influenced one another for generations.
392 pages, 344 illustrations, $29.95 paper

REDEVELOPMENT AND RACE
Planning a Finer City in Postwar Detroit
JUNE MANNING THOMAS
"It not only gives the reader a richly textured portrait of planning's rocky ride during this tumultuous era, but it also helps to explain why city leaders proved unable to halt the process of urban decline."—Christopher Silver, Virginia Commonwealth University
304 pages, 78 illustrations, $39.95 cloth

THE NEW ENGLAND VILLAGE
JOSEPH S. WOOD
The New England village is one of the enduring icons of the American historical imagination. Yet this village is a nineteenth-century place, argues Joseph Wood, and its association with the colonial past a nineteenth-century Romantic invention.
248 pages, 82 illustrations, $39.95 cloth

ALLIGATORS, Prehistoric Presence in the American Landscape
PHOTOGRAPHS AND TEXT BY MARTHA STRAWN
with essays by LeRoy Overstreet, Jane Gibson, and J. Whitfield Gibbons
This unique book combines art, science, history, folklore, land ethics, and literature to tell the story of America's southern landscape and one of its most evocative creatures.
240 pages, 160 color photographs, $39.95 cloth

THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY PRESS
Hampden Station, Baltimore, Maryland 21211 • 1-800-537-5487 • http://jhupress.jhu.edu/home.html