conceptual approaches to ethical theory and ecological philosophy

EDITED BY VICTORIA DAVION

Ethics & the Environment is an interdisciplinary forum for theoretical and practical articles, discussions, reviews, and book reviews in the broad area encompassed by environmental ethics. Topics include conceptual approaches to ethical theory and ecological philosophy, such as deep ecology and ecological feminism as they pertain to such issues as environmental education and management, ecological economies, and ecosystem health.

Looking beyond the Icons
Midcentury Architecture, Landscape, and Urbanism
Richard Longstreth
$65.00 | CLOTH
Renowned for his extensive work in architectural history and historic preservation as an educator, scholar, activist, and public lecturer, Richard Longstreth is one of the most important architectural preservationists of the recent past. Looking beyond the Icons offers a generous and diverse selection of his writings over the past twenty-five years.

The Camaro in the Pasture
Speculations on the Cultural Landscape of America
Robert B. Riley
$39.50 | CLOTH
Collected here are a selection of perceptive, learned, entertaining, and often polemical pieces by Robert Riley, for many years one of the most important figures in landscape studies. Throughout, Riley emphasizes the vernacular landscape of contemporary America—how we have shaped and use it, what it is becoming, and, above all, how we experience it.

MELLON SQUARE
DISCOVERING A MODERN MASTERPIECE

The latest in the award winning Modern Landscapes – Transition and Transformation series examines the first Modernist garden plaza built over a parking garage, completed in Pittsburgh in 1955 from a design by the acclaimed landscape design firm Simonds & Simonds and architects Mitchell & Ritchey. It was recently restored by Patricia O’Donnell of Heritage Landscapes.

This volume is authored by Susan M. Rademacher and includes a forward by Charles A. Birnbaum, introduction by Patricia M. O’Donnell, preface by Richard C. Bell and an epilogue by Barry W. Starke.
