Landscape Journal is dedicated to the dissemination of the results of academic research and scholarly investigation of interest to practitioners, academicians, and students of landscape architecture.

Cover: Thurlow Lodge, San Mateo, California, circa 1872. Landscape Architect: Rudolf Ulrich. See D.C. Streatfield, "Where Pine and Palm Meet: The California Garden as a Regional Expression," page 61. Photograph by Carleton E. Watkins; on file in San Mateo County Historical Association.

Below: The Informational Model of Landscape Preference (developed by R. and S. Kaplan), as well as the photograph below, contain the dimensions of mystery, complexity, coherence and legibility. For an assessment of mystery in an information processing model of landscape preference, refer to R. H. Gimblett, et al., page 87. Photograph by R. H. Gimblett.
